

Amendment #1 to RFP: SJPC-MC-33120 – Questions from Potential Bidders

- Q1: Whether companies from Outside USA can apply for this? (like, from India or Canada)
- A1: There is nothing within the RFP that would legally preclude a company from outside the United States of America from applying for the position, within federal restrictions.
- Q2: Whether we need to come over there for meetings?
- A2: The third paragraph of 3.2A of the RFP specifies the required attendance at every public meeting of the Board of Directors.
- Q3: Can we perform the tasks (related to RFP) outside USA? (like, from India or Canada)
- A3: Besides the attendance requirement referenced in A2, there is nothing within the RFP that would legally preclude a company from performing any tasks outside the United States.
- Q4: Can we submit the proposals via email?
- A4: Other than being required to provide at least eight {8} copies of the proposal, feel free to submit your proposal by e-mail.
